

Deputy Fire Marshal
Salary Range: $72,254 - $92,212 Annually
Keizer Fire District - Oregon
Application Period closes March 1st, 2017 @ 5 PM PST

Emergency Services Consulting International (ESCI) is seeking a qualified Deputy Fire Marshal for the Keizer Fire District, to be hired in May, 2017. This position is being filled due to the retirement of the former Deputy Fire Marshal.

Organized in 1948, Keizer Fire District provides Fire Protection, Fire Prevention services, Public Safety Education, and Community Emergency Services to approximately 10 square miles, which includes the City of Keizer, Oregon (rated as the 2nd best place in Oregon to live), and serves a resident population of approximately 39,000.

The Fire District's Mission is "To protect lives, property, and the environment through quality emergency response and community involvement." This statement sums up the purpose of the 32 career employees, 25 Volunteer Firefighters, and the 15 Explorer Scouts; the person filling this position is expected to exemplify this Mission. Keizer Fire District emergency responders responded to 4,685 calls for help in 2016, responding from one centrally located Fire Station.

The ideal candidate will have a high level of experience, education, and current Fire Prevention & Code Enforcement certifications, as stipulated in the Deputy Fire Marshal Job Description. The person in this position experiences a high degree of public interaction, therefore must have excellent skills in the area of interpersonal relations.

This is a Captain ranked position; who will report directly to the Fire Chief. It is essential that they be a self-starter and able work independently. The Fire District is experiencing substantial growth, in both businesses and housing. The Deputy Fire Marshal works closely with the City of Keizer's Department of Community Development, and Marion County Building officials on building permits and pre-applications and the City of Keizer, Code Enforcement Officer.

The Deputy Fire Marshal supervises a Public Education Specialist and may also supervise others as assigned. The position is represented by IAFF.

This is an excellent opportunity with a quality organization that is very involved in the community they serve, and well respected and supported by the community.

Please go to Keizer Fire District's website www.keizerfire.com to obtain the Job Description and required application packet.

Questions, please contact the Keizer business office at (503) 390-9111

Recruitment and Testing done by Emergency Services Consulting International (ESCI)

Initial phone interviews are scheduled for March 6 & 7, 2017

The Assessment Center is scheduled to be held on March 17, 2017