- At this time, the Board will hold an executive session pursuant to ORS 192.660(2)(h) for consultation with legal counsel concerning litigation or litigation likely to be filed. No final decisions will be made in executive session.

The Oregon Public Meeting Law authorizes governing bodies to meet in executive session in certain limited situations. An Executive session is defined as any meeting or part of a meeting of a governing body which is closed to certain persons for deliberations on certain matters as defined by ORS 192.660. These sessions are closed to the public and under certain circumstances to the media also. The governing body is not allowed to take any final action or make any final decisions during the executive session. Any final action or decision can only be made after returning or at a next regularly scheduled meeting.

Under ORS 192.660(4) representatives of the news media are specifically directed not to report on any of the deliberations during the Executive Session, except to cite the general subject of the session as previously announced.
